A rare opportunity to secure this impressive double brick home on a quiet street in this extremely appealing and tightly held location.

This home consists of a double carport for secure off street parking and front verandah that leads to the separate entrance. The spacious main living area boasts lofty raked ceilings and polished timber floors and comes with a slow combustion heater and has a lovely feel to it. It's overlooked by the dining/meals area and a well appointed and updated kitchen that comes complete with a stainless steel 900mm oven, gas cook top and range hood. There is a dual sink and good bench and cupboard space.

There is another versatile living area that could be used as
