For further information, please contact David Hams anytime.

Located within walking distance to the beautiful and historic township of Willunga, sits this slightly elevated 690m<sup>2</sup> allotment. Boasting a healthy 20m frontage, and free of any easements and/or encumbrances makes this allotment worth serious consideration if you are, or have been looking for a site to build your new dream home.

Vacant land is hard to find in this popular, and tightly held suburb. When you consider the rarity of the land and couple that with the elevated aspect and potential for views, and the fact that this allotment is suitable for a wide range of dwellings (STCC) you should be quick to register
