This simply stunning small acreage property has been lovingly and impressively created by the current owners. From the moment you start making your way up the driveway, you can immediately appreciate that this place is special.

The bitumen driveway takes you over a winter creek at the front of the property. It then meanders between the front paddocks, flows past and also gives direct access into a 6m x 6m powered (3 phase) garage/workshop. It continues around established gardens with a number of mature trees that not only look amazing, they provide a lovely natural screen and make the home incredibly private. The
