'Willunga Peacock Farm'

This iconic property is extremely unique and ultra impressive! It is located on the fringe of the Willunga township and offers a very rare opportunity for a range of different buyers.

Originally established by the Norman family in the 1850's. Among other things the Normans introduced Peacocks to the property with a number of stunningly beautiful descendants still roaming the grounds that add to the unique overall appeal of the property and lend the property its name.

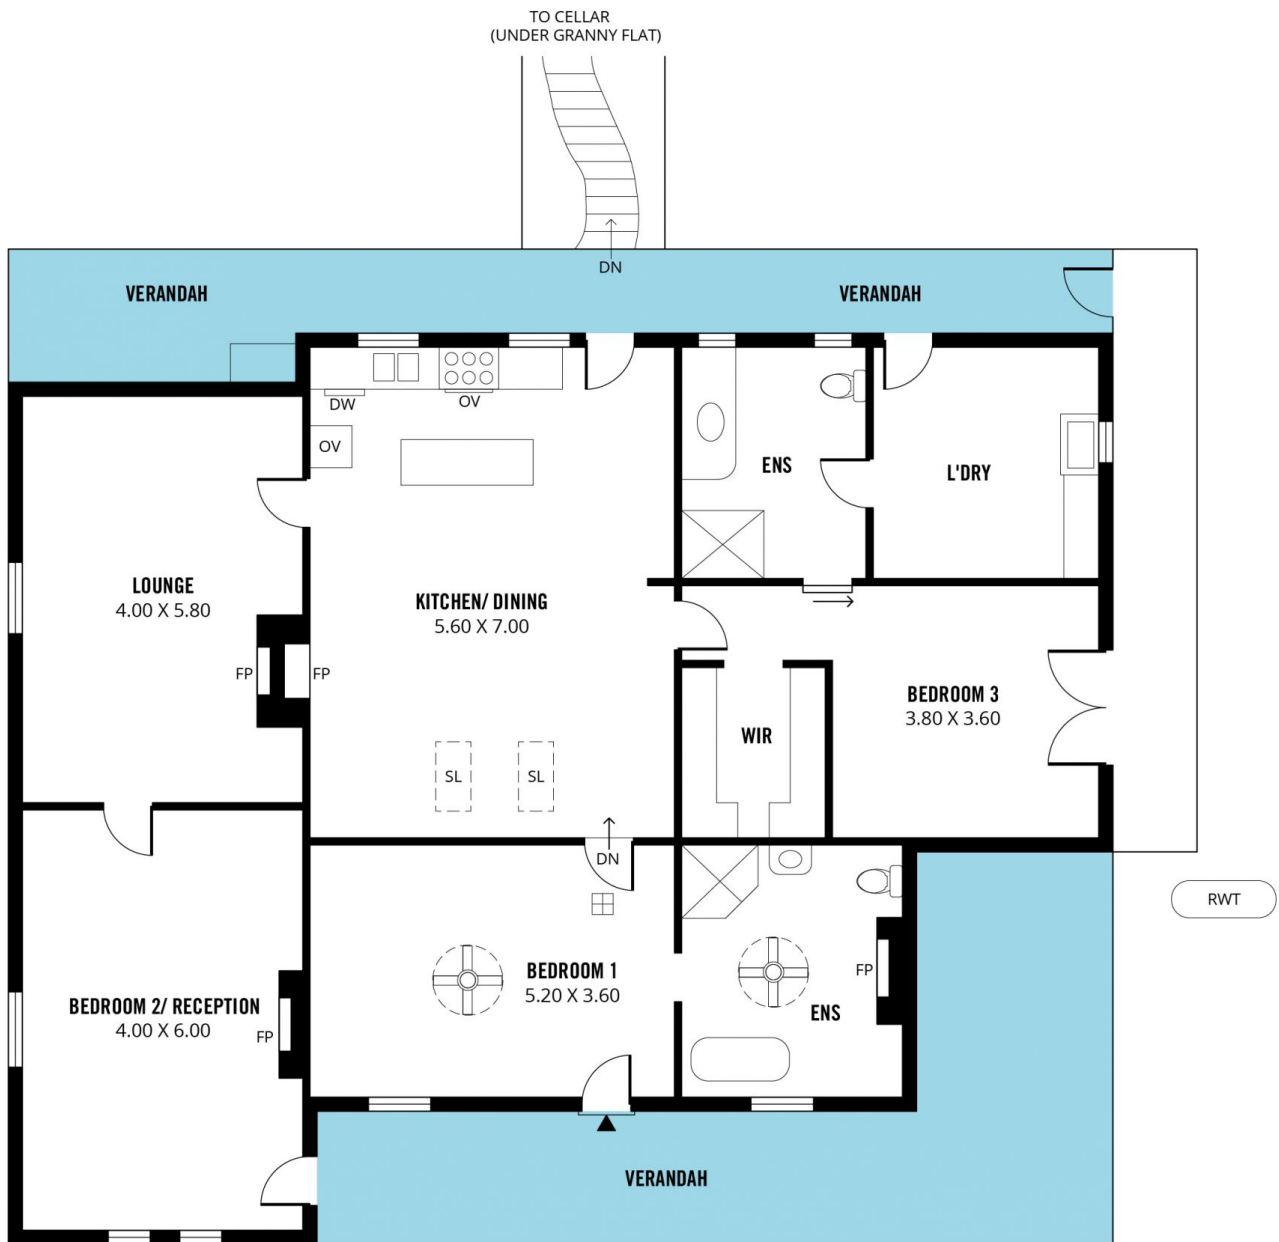

Boasting 5 fabulous and secluded acres of land with a number of separate buildings including a lovely homestead,
