This unique property could be ideal for a range of buyers and offers a few rare features that make it worth some serious consideration.

Located on a quiet Cul-De-Sac with a neighboring property only on one side and plenty of open space at the rear and the other side of the home. The total block size is a whopping 4,117m² or just over an acre which is extremely unique in this area. The property has been fenced around the home and rear yard, but the large portion of land to the side of the house is currently open space.

The established and well maintained front garden and colonial style façade offer a lovely street appeal. There is direct access into a carport area under the main roof for
