48 Dalkeith Road Seaforth Rise SA

4 2 2

This ultra impressive federation style home boasts an attractive bluestone façade with a bullnose verandah and boasts loads of character and charm...

As you make your way up the paved double driveway that leads to the double garage, then as you stroll past the front of the home to the private entrance, you can immediately appreciate that this property is something pretty special and is different to most in the area.

The separate entrance foyer gives a lovely first impression and flows through to the classy formal living room that comes with a feature gas fireplace, ceiling rose with fan and leads through to the formal dining which is also a lovely room. The main bedroom is located on the other side
