If you have been on the look out for a lifestyle or acreage property in the McLaren Vale region recently, I would be surprised if you have come across one that compares with this amazing property and what it has to offer.

This truly amazing property is located on the doorstep of McLaren Vale, boasting a stunning executive style residence set on 11.5 acres (approx) with a very well established vineyard and the most spectacular views. An extremely impressive offering and one that deserves serious consideration...

The home was built by the current and original owners in 2005 on a slightly elevated front section of land that allows for some breath-taking views over the vineyard and stretch all the way to the Willunga and Sellicks hills in the distance.
