Please contact David Hams from Magain Real Estate for all your property advice.

This extremely special and much loved property presents an extraordinarily rare opportunity to secure 1.5 acres (approx) of flat land with an array of mature trees and easy care gardens, located a few hundred meters from the spectacular Sellicks Beach coastline and a lovely four bedroom home that boasts genuine ocean and beach views... Properties like this do not become available very often!

The home was built in 2001 and is set back from the road making it feel very private and secure. There is a large looping driveway that leads into a large single garage that
