10 Cove Circuit Seaford Rise SA

3 2 1

This much loved and very well maintained and presented home is located in a very private location. It is positioned overlooking a lovely tree lined reserve on a very quiet street with minimal local traffic. It is withing easy access to nearby walking and bike tracks that lead down to the beach in one direction and to local schools, shops and transport options in the other.

The home itself offers secure off street parking in a good sized single carport area that is accessed via an automated roller door. The front garden is well established, very low maintenance and provides a pleasant street appeal.

The tiled entrance hall provides access into the large main bedroom that is located at the front of the home. It comes
