Please contact David for all your property advice.

This amazing property has been loved and was built by the current and original owners in 1985. It oozes so much character that it really does need to be seen in person so it can be truly appreciated.

The solid brick construction and contemporary style fits perfectly in this much sought after and tightly held seaside suburb. There is a large double carport for secure off street parking with direct access via two lockable doors to both the front and side patio areas making this property both extremely private and secure.

The front patio has an undercover paved area which is an
