Please contact David Hams from Magain Real Estate for all your property advice.

This spacious and impressive home offers a versatile floorplan and is tucked away in a private Cul-De-Sac location that is conveniently located within easy access to a number of schools, shops and transport options making it ideal for a range of buyers.

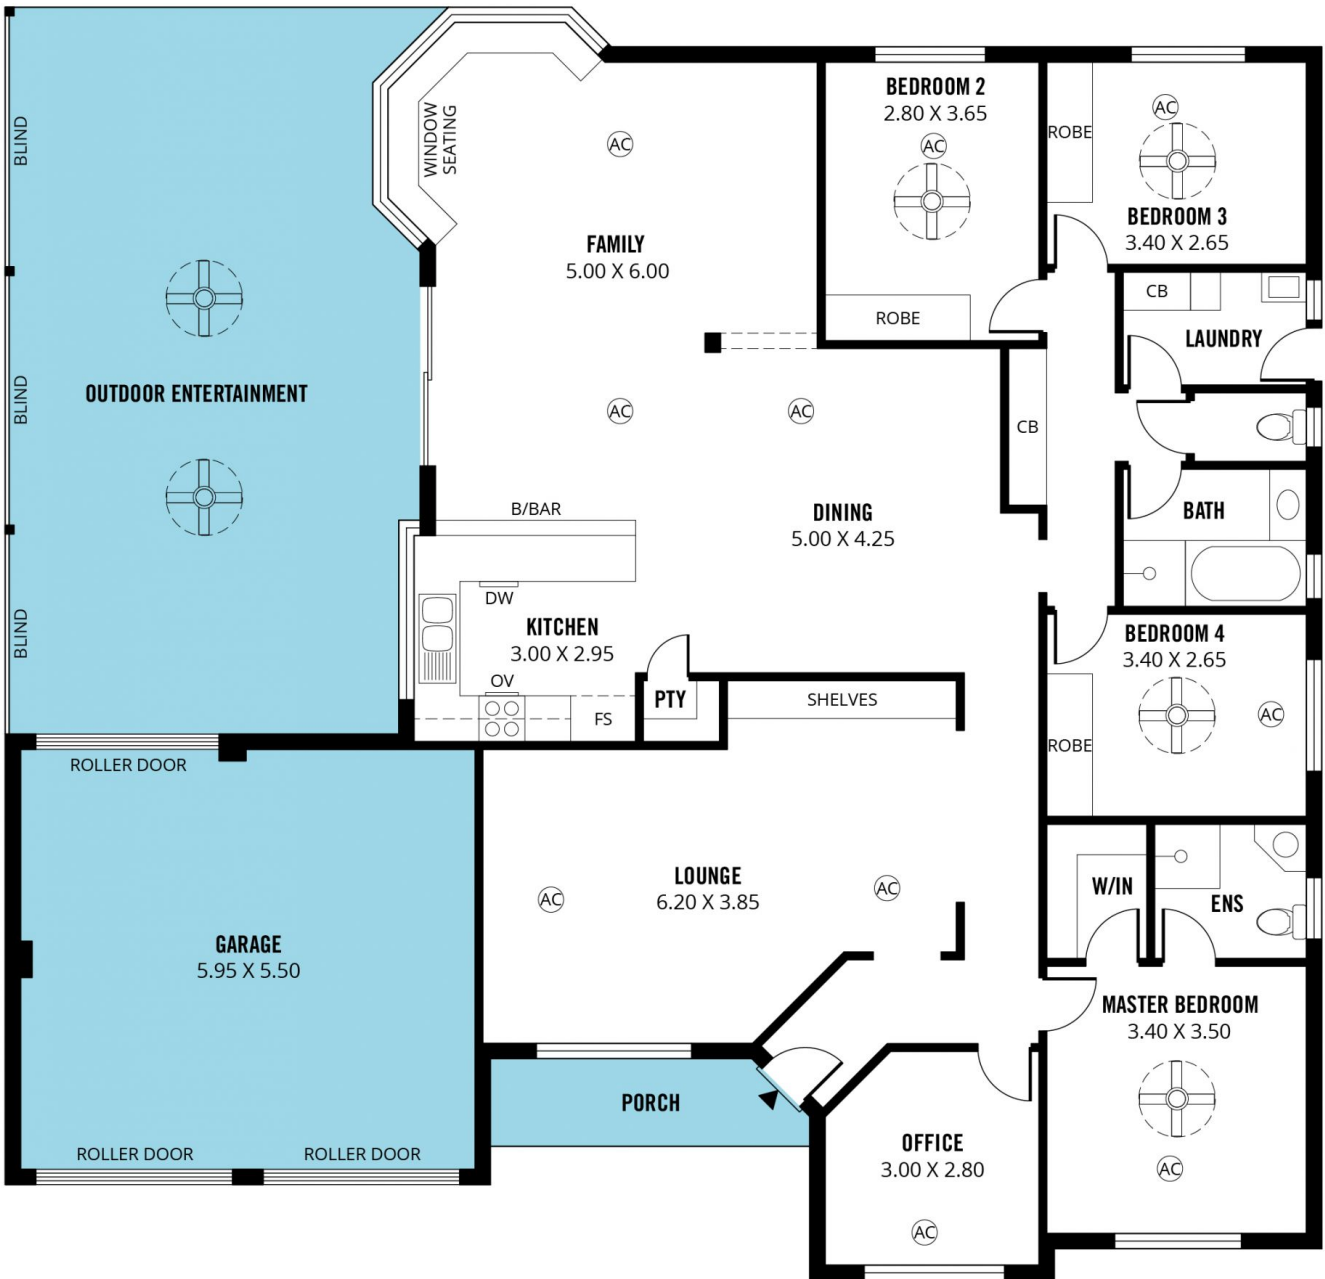

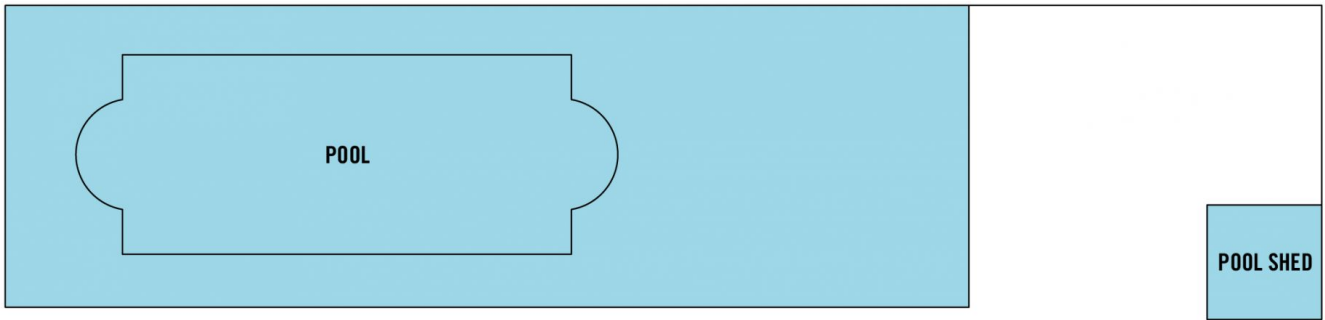

There is a wide double driveway that provides additional off street parking and leads into a double garage via dual roller doors. There is a very neat front lawn and the home has a nice façade with downlights under the eaves that add to the street appeal.
