9 St Andrews Terrace Willunga SA

3 2 2

This is an ultra rare opportunity to secure a significant and extremely impressive part of Willunga and its history. The original Circa 1849 symmetrical cottage was constructed with local stone and Willunga slate for the floors and roof. The cottage is in exceptional condition both inside and out which is a credit to the current and all previous owners and boasts a stunning and intriguing street appeal.

The cottage features a front verandah that overlooks the front garden and provides access into the separate entrance hall that has timber floors and 3m high ceilings. Bedroom 1 is located off the entry hall and features the original pressed metal ceilings and an open fireplace. Bedroom 2 is located across the hall and has ornate cornicing and ceiling rose. It also has its own fireplace. The
