This deceptively spacious home is set on a generously sized 772m2 allotment (approx) on a quiet street in the heart of McLaren Vale and could be ideal for a range of buyers...

Built in 1986 and much loved by its original owners, this 174m2 home offers plenty of space and the flexibility to put your own touch on it if required. It currently has two good sized bedrooms, but there is the room and the potential to easily convert to add another or more bedrooms if needed.

The double driveway leads to a powered double
