Please contact David Hams from Magain Real Estate for all our property advice.

This impressive property presents an extremely rare opportunity to secure approximately half an acre of land with a spacious and versatile home located in the heart of this highly sought after suburb. Opportunities and properties like this are very hard to find and hardly ever hit the market, so this one should be seriously considered...

The home was built in 1983 and has benefitted from some tasteful renovations and updates and has obviously been well maintained and cared for. The rendered façade and large separate entrance foyer provide a classy first impression. The L-shaped formal lounge and dining can be
