Please contact David Hams from Magain Real Estate for all your property advice.

Nestled amongst other quality homes on a much sought after street, this impressively updated and extremely well maintained property offers more than most and is worth some serious consideration.

Originally built in 2009, this home boasts a tastefully rendered façade with a well established and well maintained front yard. There is a huge amount of off street parking available on the impressive exposed aggregate driveway. This leads directly into a garage located under the main roof with direct access into the adjacent 9m x 9m (approx) powered garage/workshop that also offers high
