Designer builds like this are unique and offer an unrivaled prestigious home on the market where the new owner can boast to their family and friends about which house they bought. Striking timber features and roof line feel like they stretch up to the sky giving a sense of something special. The home was built in 2021 on a large allotment of approximately 1625m² of land in the much sort after Township of Old Noarlunga. The Onkaparinga river wraps around this popular suburb offering enviable walking or riding experiences and cafe / pub lifestyle where time seems to stand still.

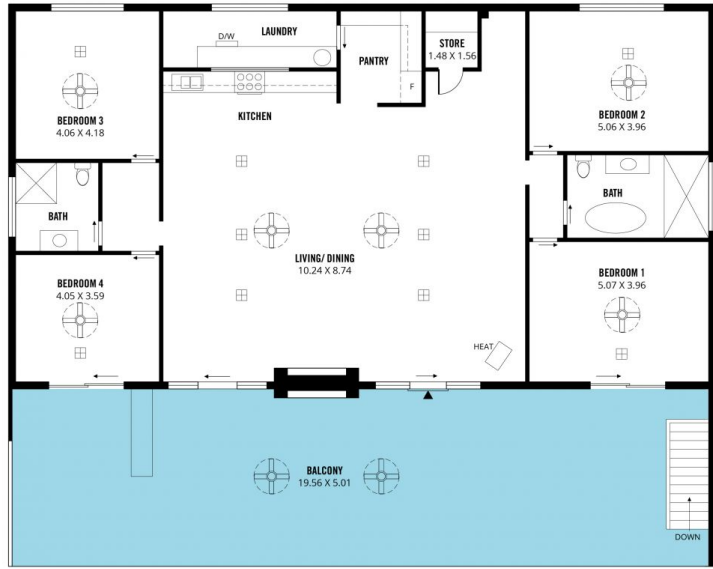

This impressive property boasts features one can only
