11/6 Reservoir Road HOPE VALLEY SA

2 1 1

Here is an opportunity to purchase an entry level first home or investment with colonial style constructed in 1982. With a feature Bay Window in the lounge, colonial style windows, just painted and with new carpets and tiles throughout, this 2 bedroom home would suit a professional individual or couple, or an investor looking for an extremely high quality, well finished property with nothing more to do.

The entry opens directly to the large, reverse cycle air conditioned living room with an adjoining but separate dining area adjacent to the kitchen. This chef's playground is immaculately finished and well-appointed embracing a dishwasher, electric oven and cook top with overhead fan all in stainless steel and finished with vast bench space and ample storage. The dining opens directly to the large,
