What a cracking property this one is. Located on a quite one way street this three story, modern townhouse is an absolute must if you're looking for easy city living.

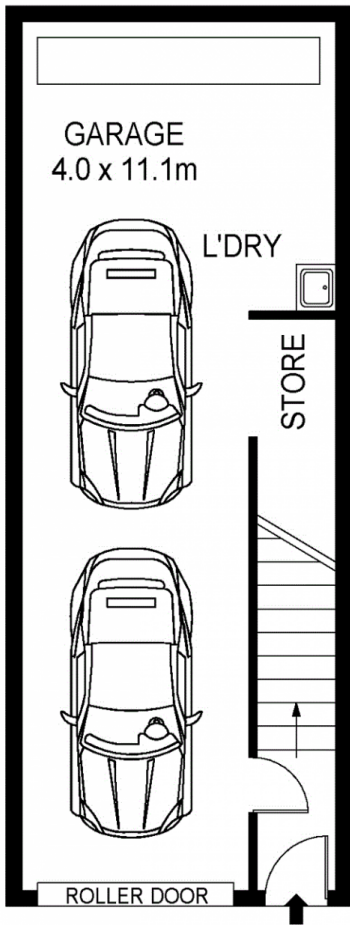

Offering the successful new owner a rare treat of a 2 car garage, under stair storage and laundry facilities with room for further storage options. On the second level you will find two good size bedrooms with built in robes, a linen press, main bathroom with bath and toilet and a further second toilet.

The third level offers a great open plan living space with a modern kitchen and stainless steel dishwasher and electric oven. The large living space opens onto your own private balcony with double sliding doors and views across the city
