5 O'Leary Street ELIZABETH SOUTH SA

This 3 bedroom free standing conventional home built in 1959 once featured a glorious garden that embraced the rear yard of the approximately 1730 square metre land surrounding the home. While the glory days for the home itself may be gone, this is a property in an outstanding location close to shops, schools, public transport and faces a park but no houses at the front. The Elizabeth South train station is a mere 100 metres away.

The solid brick construction home has three bedrooms, open plan lounge and dining adjacent to the kitchen with electric cooking, range hood and plenty of storage space. There is a separate laundry and toilet but the bathroom is in desperate need of a total refurbishment. A stand-alone rumpus room is at the rear of the home accessed from the
