Lovers of this uniquely Australian modernist style rejoice . . . a 1960's residence that has stayed true to its mid-century modern identity (or "MCM" as it is now called), while being well cared for and loved by the original owner.

Alternatively, there is plenty of potential to redevelop the 1,175sqm approx. site (STC) to maximise the highly sought-after blue-ribbon location. The allotment has a street frontage of approx. 21.95m, while the depth is approx. 53.59m and the zone is Suburban Neighbourhood.

You'll admire the pristine condition of many of the original features and the overall blueprint of this remarkable home
