Modern and stylish, a well-designed two-storey home that is well located at the rear of an appealing group of three. Being adjacent to the Irish Harp Reserve and playground, and with its own private access, this truly is a unique and rare opportunity.

A light, airy and spacious interior design that is easy-to-live-in. The floor plan comprises of an entrance hall, three very good size bedrooms including the master which has a fully tiled en-suite and a delightful balcony view over the reserve, a generous open plan living and dining room that integrates well with the outdoor entertaining zone, an adjacent kitchen, an area with a built-in desk large enough for two children to study (alternatively a home office comfortably for two adults), a fully tiled main
