Rarely do you find a home where design, location and features all come together to give you a perfect lifestyle within your budget. Combining an inspired location opposite a park providing a perfect outlook and an easy walk to the Seaford Meadows train station and the fantastic shopping facilities you could not pick a better combination of convenience and practicality.

All three bedrooms are a great size, with bedrooms two and three featuring a built in robe, whilst the master suite features a large walk in robe and ensuite. Both the family bathroom and the ensuite are modern and well designed and feature a temperature controlled instant gas hot water system.
