Offering stunning views of our beautiful city and coast, great entertaining and a heated salt water pool this beautifully presented home is sure to impress. Nestled in the heart of Seacombe Heights, this two story home offers four good size bedrooms, all with built in robes and the master with ensuite access to the two way bathroom with its well preserved original Terrazzo floor. Stepping into the formal lounge you are greeted by beautiful Tasmanian Oak floorboards and of course the stunning views out over Adelaide and the ocean. These large windows also offer plenty of natural light. Another great feature is the stunning timber staircase with wrought iron railings. There are sliding glass doors through to the tiled dining room, also with
