What a find especially when all the hard work has been done for you and the rare find of a large double garage privately located at the rear of the property. Perfectly positioned close to local schooling and shops, main transport routes and an established and popular suburb.

Ideal for those getting into the market or upgrading, the home is attractive from the front and the theme follows through internally. Large open plan family/meals area with split system air conditioning and down lights, renovated and glistening kitchen with range-hood, lots of cupboard space and dishwasher.

Three bedrooms, large master with wall to wall mirrored robes and ceiling fan and other two bedrooms are also spacious. The bathroom and separate toilet have also been
