An undeniable standout in its class and representing excellent value for money, this lovingly appointed three bedroom double brick home will pleasantly surprise.

Offering good kerbside appeal and impressive internal decor, not to mention the spacious and updated kitchen at the hub of the home. The delightful formal lounge is complemented by a formal dining room at the rear of the property which, in addition to blending beautifully with the kitchen, looks out onto large all-weather entertaining and excellent grounds.

Externally the home also features a single carport, lots of
