Renovating is not as easy as it looks on TV but don't worry there is no need to lift a finger here with all the hard work already done. From the moment you walk in you will be blown away by the modern and fresh feel this home has to offer. The stunning kitchen with its stainless steel appliances, designer finishes and and fresh feel sets the tone of this fantastic home. Located in the open plan living area the kitchen certainly becomes the hub of the home but is complimented by the huge living space which has beautiful timber floors and reverse cycle air conditioning.

The home has been extended to include a brand new master bedroom, ensuite and walk in robe which is sure to please all buyers with its ceiling mounted shower head and immaculate finishes. At the other end of the home you will
