Please call Scott McPharlin for viewing times.

Value has found a new address with the features you will find here all located on a 720 sqm allotment in a great private area of Hackham West.

The first thing you will notice is the home features an abundance of car parking with a huge carport in front of a double garage.

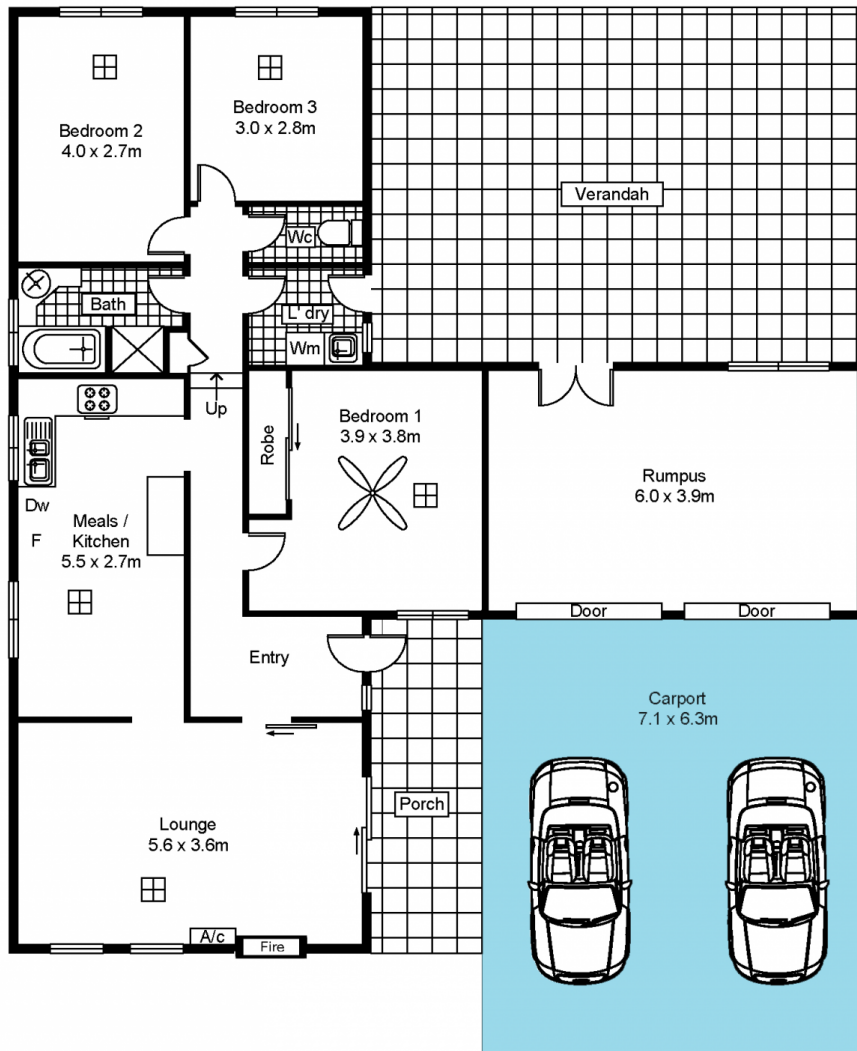

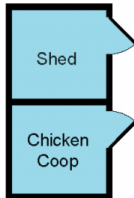

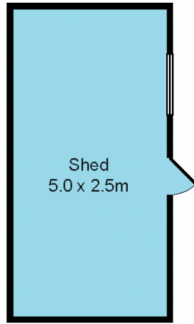

Inside you will find the home has been fully repainted, has new carpets throughout and features a large lounge room and an updated kitchen which is open plan with the dining area. There are three large bedrooms with the master having a built in robe. The bathroom features a separate bath and shower and there is a separate toilet off the laundry.
