Sited perfectly at the front of the group, this unit has been freshened up and is just waiting to go. Deceptively roomy with a front lounge area with gas wall space heater and kitchen/meals area. Large master with robes and good size second bedroom. Main bathroom and separate laundry and access out to your extensive undercover entertaining area. Private garden and secure lock up carport. All weather and plenty of room for the outside furniture and parking. With ducted evaporative air conditioning and a super convenient location close to main transport routes and shops and offering potential for a strong rental return.
