Call Scott to organise a time to view this property.

This is a stunning property which will light up your life with its large north facing rear yard and alfresco area. Top this off with an excellent street appeal and modern facade, this home will really suit downsizers, investors or first home buyers, looking for modern low maintenance living.

The home features a light and bright master bedroom with walk in robe and direct access to the semi ensuite bathroom. The ensuite features a separate bath and shower room, along with a separate vanity and toilet. The second and third bedrooms are of good size and have built in robes to store all your worldly possessions in.
