Once in a while a property comes to the market that really catches the eye, and this is one of them! Privately nestled in a fantastic position close to local shops, transport routes and great schooling, this home is loaded with features and boasts season round entertaining.

Dual access front gated driveway for secure off street parking for four cars (two undercover). Head into the home with the large entrance hallway with attractive polished floorboards throughout most of the property. Larger families who love to entertain will really fall in love with this one. The large open plan family and meals area with ornamental feature brick fireplace and every mans dream, a cellar. Store your prized wines and liqueurs in perfect condition.
