Call Scott for viewing times.

This beautiful 2011 Devine home represents a fantastic opportunity for buyers looking for modern living with a connection to country. Set at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac in the picturesque country township of Myponga, this home is 45mins commute to the city and close to some of the souths best beaches and wineries.

The contemporary floorplan makes good use of space, with 3 good sized bedrooms, all with ceiling fans and BIR, except the master which has an ensuite and WIR. The main bathroom and separate laundry are clean, bright and easily service the home.
