Heads up everyone this 2012 home is a perfect choice for first home buyers, investors and downsizers.

From the street, this modern home has a neat appearance, and provides several options for parking with space for up to 3 cars including a garage with powered roller door and secure internal access.

As you enter, the smart floorplan, large gloss tiles along with high ceilings give a surprising sense of spaciousness to the living area. The kitchen is generous with plenty of bench space, storage, and comes complete with dishwasher and gas appliances.
