Call Scott to organise an inspection.

Idyllically situated across from a park, this beautiful double red-brick home provides the unique opportunity for those looking for a home to set up base, with the potential for home business.

With an established front garden and private courtyard entry, the homely charm continues throughout the spacious floorplan, with generous I-shaped front lounge and separate dining room. The central kitchen is fitted with a dishwasher and electric appliances, with plenty of storage space available in the separate walk in pantry and wooden cabinetry.
