This exciting opportunity is sure to stir up some fresh ideas & plans from any experienced developers looking for their next project. Large blocks in good areas are getting harder to come by these days, so a great opportunity like this doesn't come along every day.

Zoned residential to the City of Onkaparinga, this large block offers 2,043 square meters approx of near flat land, plus a huge 61m street frontage, this site is a definite winner for someone with big ideas.

The home on the block is one of the original Old Reynella Homesteads, built in the early 1900's it has been extended to incorporate two units. The rear unit is currently empty
