If Lifestyle is what you are looking for then this home will not disappoint with its views over the Onkaparinga river reserve that will captivate you everyday with its ever changing colours. Hidden behind double gates and down a long driveway you will enjoy watching the tides come in and out and all the flora and fauna from the magical pelicans to the mobs of kangaroos and on a good day the mighty mulloway cruising the river, there is always something that makes you appreciate the magical place that you could be calling home very soon!

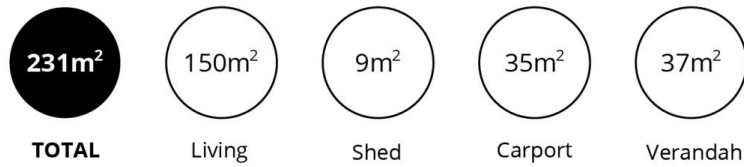

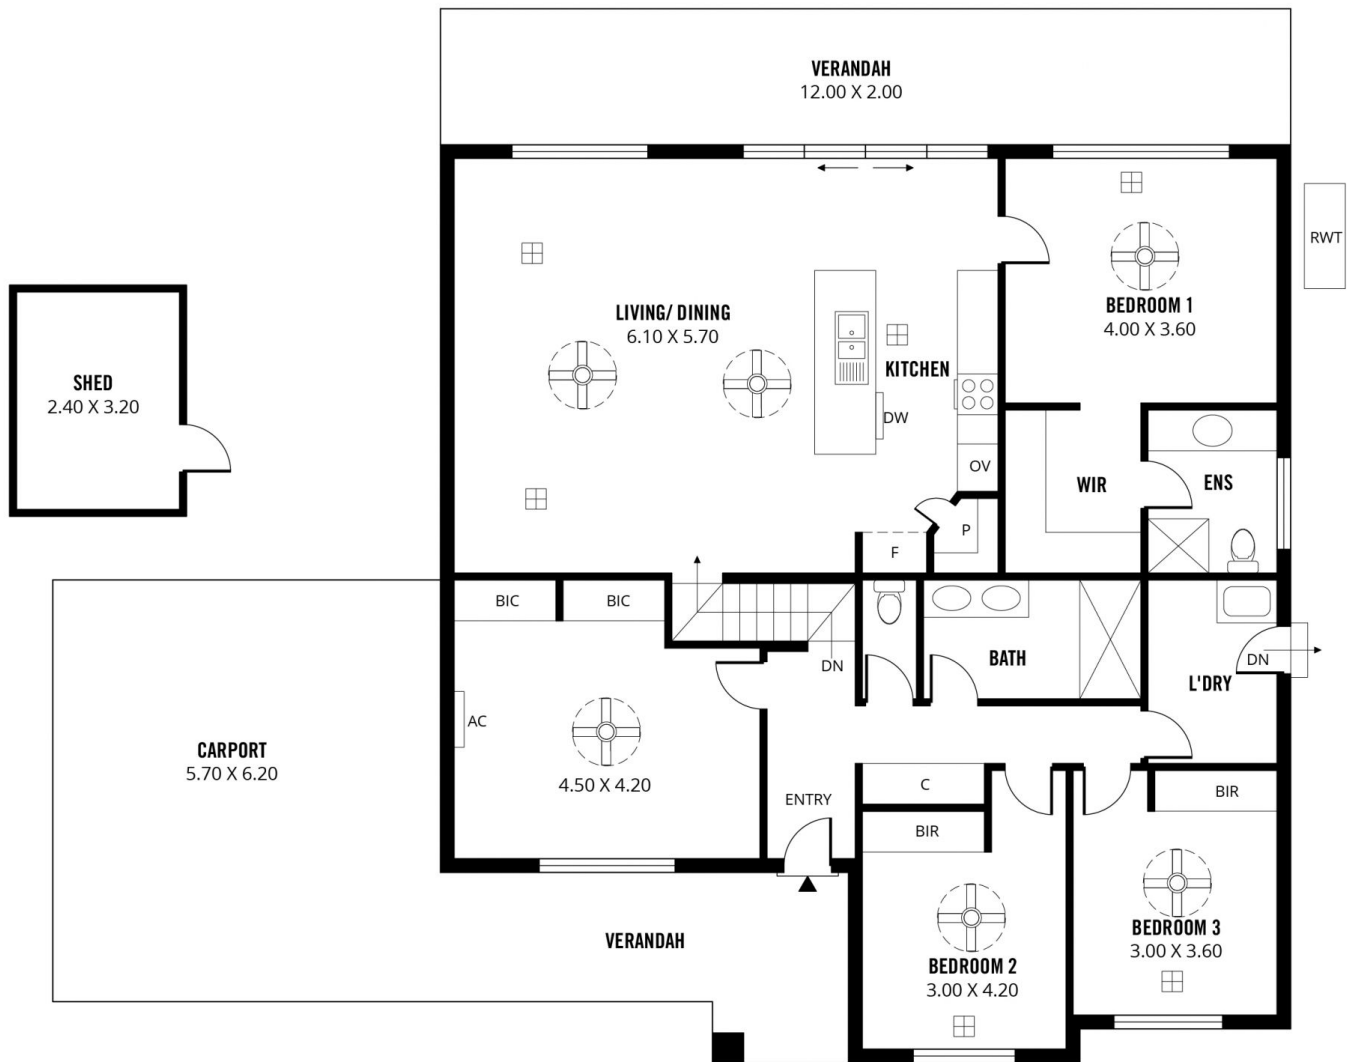

The home is a split level traditional style home featuring great sized rooms and modern tones throughout. As you enter the home on the upper level you will find the front living area which is currently being used as a home office
