Its hard to find homes with all the original features intact and even harder to find one where they are all in near perfect condition but this home certainly won't disappoint those buyers looking for that retro feel but wanting to add their own modern touches.

Located on an 18.8m wide, 721sqm flat and level allotment in a quiet street only 200m from your local supermarket this home is going to represent amazing value. All the rooms are a great size and most have ceiling fans with the entrance and lounge being extraordinarily big and the bedrooms all feature built in robes for great storage options.
