Formerly a branch of the Bank of South Australia this substantial building is situated opposite the St Peters Town Hall and has been transformed into something really special. Built in 1900, this iconic solid building has been tastefully renovated throughout, whilst retaining many charming original features. Touches of leadlight, original timber doors and skirtings, beautiful dark timber polished floors, and ornate ceilings combine with light neutral colours throughout to make this an incredible space.

The combinations are plentiful. This once bustling bank boasts the ability to run an office/retail space downstairs, with a 3 bedroom, 2 bathroom fully equipped living space upstairs. Alternatively, the upstairs living space could be utilised as offices. Live on the premises yourself, lease as
