This home ticks all the boxes for families, couples, first home buyers and investors alike. The interior is light and neutral, with polished timber floors and fairly original kitchen and bathroom areas. There's plenty of cupboards and room to cook family meals in the kitchen, the feature being a long and very useful island bench. The bedrooms are all of decent size, the main with built in robes, and the bathroom has a full sized bath. Great for bath time with little ones, or for you to soak in after a hard day. The second toilet located off the laundry is also a handy feature for families.

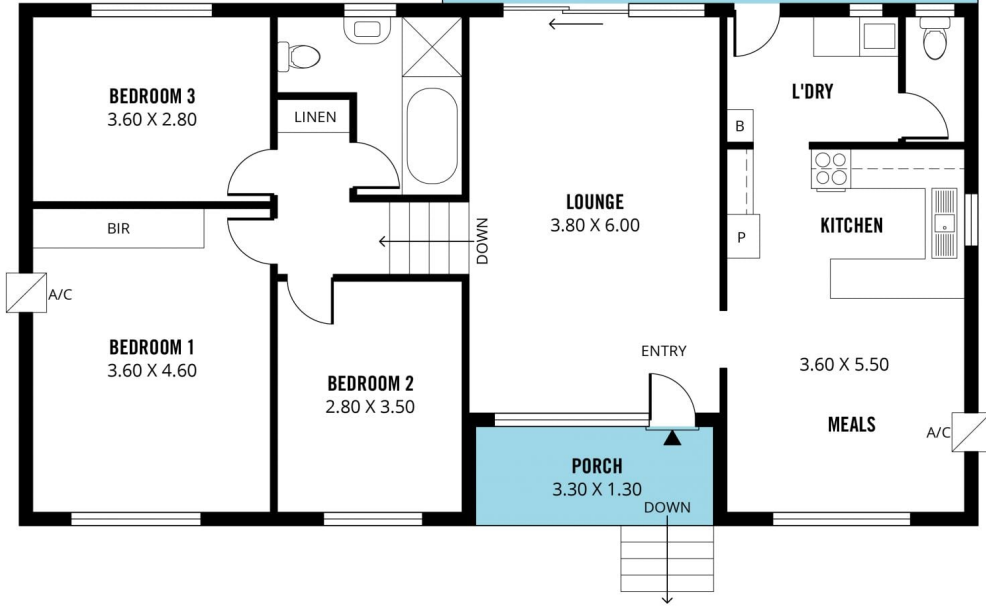

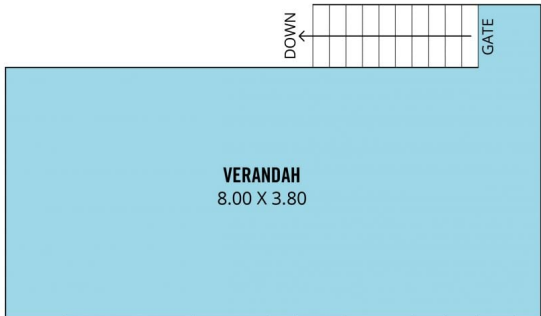

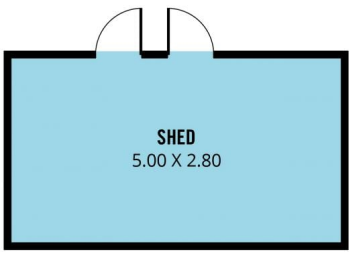

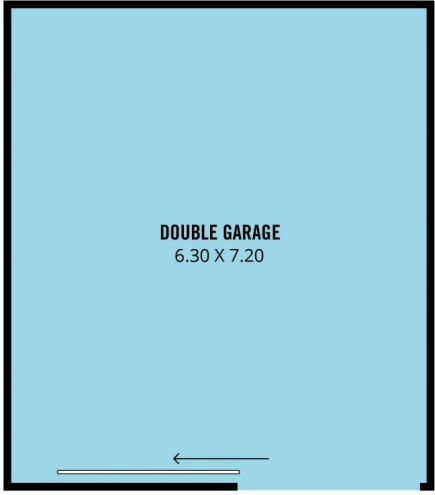

Set on a large block of some 760m², this home comes with sea views from the rear decking area. What a great space for entertaining, or simply relaxing. Sit in the shade with a
