Please contact Zoe and Mike for all your property advice.

Nestled within a tranquil enclave of just three residences, this neatly presented property promises to fulfill your desires for effortless living. Boasting an array of conveniences, including ducted vacuuming and zoned Daikin ducted reverse cycle air conditioning.

The contemporary and airy kitchen, equipped with a five-burner Blanco gas stove top, provides ample cabinetry for your storage needs. Throughout the expansive family and meals area, floating floorboards grace the space, leading to the backyard through one entrance and offering access to the double garage through a discreet privacy door.
