Please contact Mike and Zoe for all your property advice.

This circa 1910 home is beautifully presented with a combination of modern updates and classic old-world charm. The property has undergone renovations that have maintained its period features and stunning aesthetic.

The property includes two renovated bathrooms, including the stunning ensuite connected to the master, and an updated kitchen, adding a touch of modernity while still preserving its original character. The kitchen is adjacent to an open plan living and dining area. This space boasts floating floorboards and features French doors that lead out to the backyard.
