Tucked away down a private driveway this beautifully presented 2012 built weatherboard home offers an exceptional sense of serenity while being just moments from the heralded McLaren Vale township. Surrounded by natural gardens and brimming with warmth and charm, it's a home that perfectly blends style and uses the area to its maximum potential.

A welcoming front porch and natural plantings across the front set the tone for what's inside. Step through the entry hall to discover the front formal lounge and the expansive main bedroom suite - both able to be closed off from the
