Please contact Zoe Ball from Magain Real Estate for all your property advice.

Ideally positioned just a short drive to the CBD, moments from the quality cafés and restaurants along King William Road, and in the zone for Glenunga International High School, this charming 1925 bungalow blends timeless character with thoughtful modern updates.

At the front of the home, the main lounge room makes an immediate impression with floorboards, a gas fireplace, split system comfort and a gorgeous chandelier centrepiece. To the rear, a second and larger living zone provides the perfect family space, also complete with split system air conditioning.
