Please contact Danielle Comer from Magain Real Estate for all your property advice.

Beautifully renovated throughout and brimming with style, this incredibly aesthetic home delivers the perfect blend of warmth, functionality and modern flair in one of Sheidow Park's most family-friendly pockets.

From the moment you step inside, the fresh interiors and cohesive finishes set the tone. At the front of the home, a light-filled family living room creates a welcoming first impression and serves as the home's main living space. Complete with a split system for year-round comfort, it is thoughtfully positioned separate from the kitchen and dining zone, offering a sense of definition while still flowing
