Looking for land in a great spot - and maybe a little surprise on top?

This property is being sold at land value, but wait? there's more. It also comes with a house that might just be the renovator's jackpot you didn't know you needed.

Currently occupied, this one could be the makeover of the century - or the perfect blank canvas if you decide to start fresh.

A hidden surprise, endless potential, and a price that makes sense. What more could you ask for?

Subject to Council Consent for any improvements or changes to land/structure

Property purchased 'as is' with remaining items left at property - warts and all!!
