Set on a generous allotment of approximately 708m², this well-positioned three bedroom home offers a practical layout, valuable outdoor space and plenty of potential for buyers looking to move in, invest or further improve over time.

Inside, the home features a spacious front living area, a separate meals zone and a functional kitchen/dining area that connects well with the rear of the home. All three bedrooms are positioned away from the main living space, with built-in robes to each bedroom adding everyday convenience.

A handy study nook near the entry provides flexibility for those working from home, studying, or simply needing a
