34 Rees Street Sheidow Park SA

3 1 1

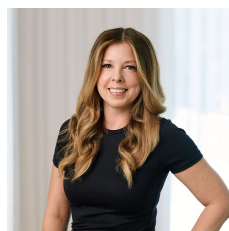

Set on a generous allotment in a convenient Sheidow Park location and just moments from Trott Park, this three bedroom home presents an exciting opportunity for first home buyers, investors, renovators or those simply looking for a property they can make their own.

The home offers comfortable living as it stands, while providing loads of potential to update, renovate and add your own personal touches over time.

Step inside to a tiled, open plan living area that creates a welcoming introduction to the home. This space flows naturally through to the adjoining dining area, complete with a split system air conditioner for additional year round comfort.
