7 Wearing Street Port Noarlunga SA

3 2 2

There's something genuinely special about this home. Bespoke, beautifully considered and filled with character, it brings together the warmth of country-inspired design with all the modern comforts you'd expect - right in the heart of the Port Noarlunga township.

From the moment you pull up the front, the attention to detail is obvious. The white picket fence, timber façade and neat low maintenance garden is just the beginning. Handpicked stone, timber paneling and barn doors add warmth and personality inside, while French oak timber floors, plantation shutters, high ceilings and a light, neutral palette give the home a relaxed and timeless feel.
