8a Everett Avenue Dulwich SA

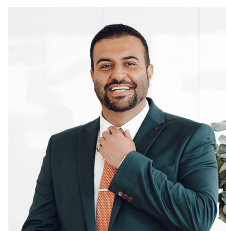

3 2 2

This much loved Dulwich home has just undergone an extensive, head-to-toe renovation, completed without an expense spared, now presenting as new throughout, with you the very first to occupy it since the transformation was completed.

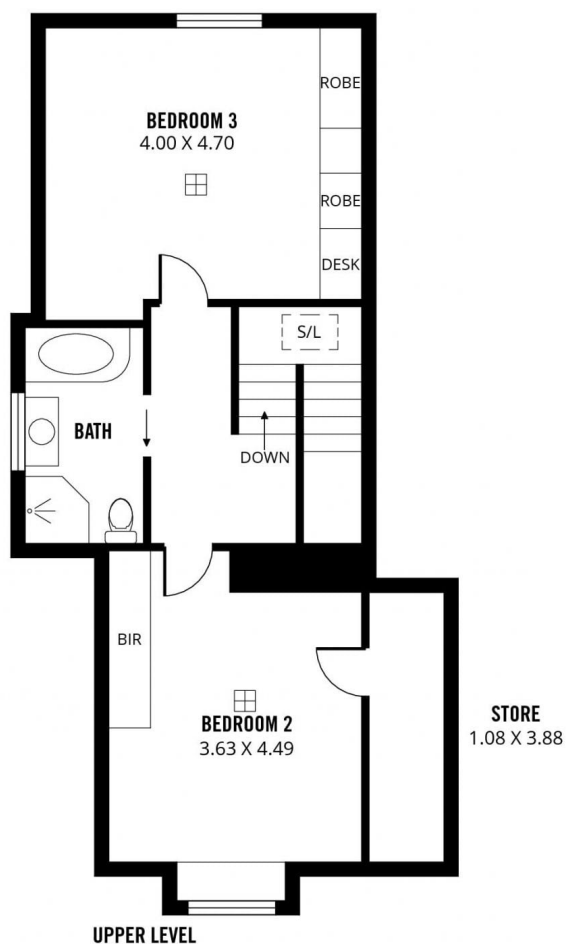

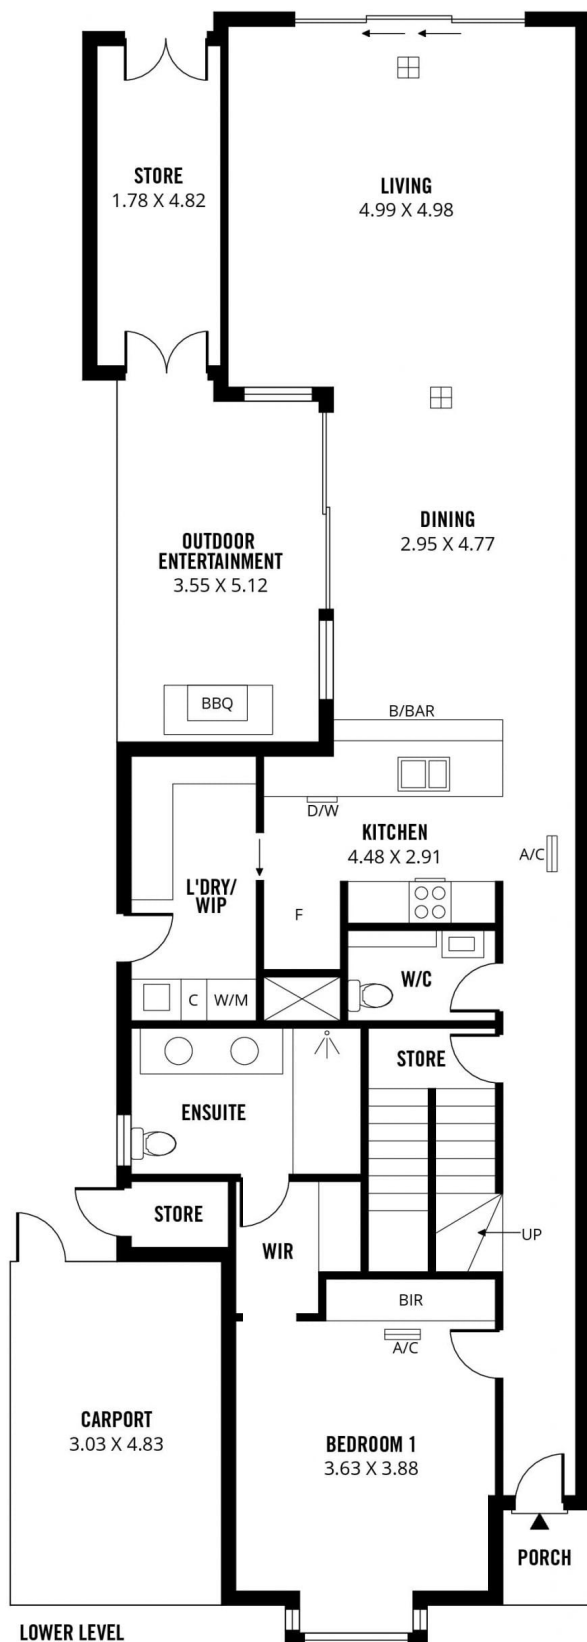

Built in 1997, the home wears its character beautifully, a classic gabled facade with all the warmth of a period home, while sitting on modern footings, plumbing and electrical from the ground up. That means none of the movement, structural cracking or underpinning costs that so often come with a genuine early-1900s build: the best of both worlds, and now finished to an as-new standard on top.

Inside, three massive double bedrooms are spread across
